Re: Armstrong v. Costco Wholesale Corporation, et al., No. 1:15-cv-2909-JBW-RML
Palmer v. CVS Health, et al., No. 1:15-cv-2928-JBW-RML

Dear Judge Weinstein:

We represent the defendants in the above-referenced actions and we submit this letter jointly on behalf of all parties in those actions,¹ in response to Your Honor's statements at the February 3, 2017 hearing in the Belfiore action regarding Your Honor's stated intent to transfer the Armstrong and Palmer cases, respectively, to the Districts of Oregon and Maryland. See Belfiore v. The Procter & Gamble Company, No. 1:14-cv-4090-JBW-RML, Transcript, Feb. 3, 2017 at 46:20-48:11.

Respectfully, counsel for all parties in the Armstrong and Palmer actions believe that, in the interests of efficiency in case management for both the parties and for the proposed transferee courts, it would be preferable for this Court to defer any decision as to whether to transfer these cases until a date approximately sixty days after Your Honor rules on the pending motions for and against class certification in the Kurtz action. This would allow the parties and counsel to confer regarding their respective positions in light of the Court's ruling in Kurtz before expending additional resources of the parties or of multiple additional district courts not yet familiar with these matters. Accordingly, we respectfully request that the Court defer any transfer of these actions until approximately sixty days after this Court issues its decision on class certification in Kurtz.

All parties in the Armstrong and Palmer actions join in this request.

¹ As Your Honor is aware, in addition to representing Costco Wholesale Corporation in the Kurtz action, we also represent defendants Costco and Nice-Pak Products, Inc. in the Armstrong action, and defendants CVS Pharmacy, Inc. and Nice-Pak in the Palmer action. Counsel for plaintiffs in the Kurtz, Armstrong, and Palmer actions joins in above request.
